

HERITAGE FESTIVAL 2010

inspired by PLACE

exploring Ox-Bow's 100 year legacy as an artists' retreat

SAUGATUCK-DOUGLAS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

experience Ox-Bow.

feel the spirit of the woods that inspired so many tour secluded artists' cabins

see the historic studios observe world-class artists at work

September 18, 2010

tickets

tour tickets:

$20 in advance
$25 day of the event

tour includes:

bus transportation

access to artists' residences and work areas previously closed to the public for more information and ticket sale locations visit sdhistoricalsociety.org events

Ox-Bow guided tour

Plein Air Meadow featuring local artists at work

Guided hikes to the scenic Crow's Nest overlook

The Saugatuck-Douglas Art Club annual Clothesline Art Show

Raffle to win a dinner for eight at the Saugatuck's historic Park House Inn

A Place Called Ox-Bow, an in-depth exhibit at the Saugatuck-Douglas Historical Society

sponsors

Thanks to our generous sponsors for their support:

Button-Petter Gallery
Water Street Gallery
Bill Underdown of Shoreline Realtors
Vander Veen's Dutch Store
Hidden Garden Cottages and Suites International Home
Janie and Jim Flemming
Janet and Fred Schmidt
Sweetwater Sailing
Serendipity Bed and Breakfast

