3 Reasons to Join the SDHS

1 ★ To learn The more you know about this area’s fascinating history the more you will love this place. Monthly newsletters will keep you up-to-date on upcoming events.

2 ★ To serve The Society will match your skills, desires and time with meaningful activities that benefit you and your community.

3 ★ To socialize Programs and events connect you to friends both old and new. You’ll meet people who share your love for this area.

Our Assets

A ★ The Old School House
After a $1.3 million restoration, this Civil War-era school once again serves the community as a history center. Attractions include:
• Back-In-Time Pathway Garden
• Rowing Them Safely Home: a Lake Michigan shipwreck and lifesaving exhibit that features a rare 1854 Francis lifesaving boat.
• Interactive Supermap and History Room
• Archives and Tech Center
• Local Art Gallery
• Meeting & Event Rental Space

B ★ Saugatuck-Douglas History Museum
An award-winning exhibition museum housed in the former Village of Saugatuck Pump House at Mt. Baldhead Park.

C ★ Our volunteers
Volunteers are the backbone of everything that happens in the society: fundraising, public relations, managing membership, manning the Tech Center, serving as museum hosts, event/program planning, building maintenance and even cultivating the gardens.

To get involved, call the Society at 269-857-5751 or email info@sdhistoricalsociety.org.
