

Taste history in a box

The Saugatuck-Douglas History Center is partnering with Isabel's Market + Eatery for a fund-raising Holiday Party in a Box. Donor/diners can choose between a $150 Artisan Box (shown), which includes a bottle of Dr. Loosen Sparkling Riesling, snacks, charcuteries plus a 300-piece SDHC Saugatuck in 1930 puzzle; and/or a $400 Pavilion Package with all the above plus a Sue Chef cooking class for two at Isabel's and limited-edition 2020 SDHC Christmas Ornament. Order by Saturday, Dec. 12, and boxes will be ready for curbside pickup at the Center's Old School House, 130 Center St., Douglas. Helping feed the need

Century 21 Affiliated of Douglas Realtors (from left) Karen Dean, Bill Underdown and Gig Virta were among those who stepped up last week during the agency's annual Day of Giving to donate a shopping cart full of requested nonperishable food items, toiletries and treats to Christian Neighbors' of Douglas' Restock the Cupboards effort.
